Welcome

If you're looking for advices and tutorials for HTML, SVG and CSS, you are in the right place!

In this website you will learn some things about programming in basic languages like the listed above. Here are some descriptions about said languages and links to the tutorials:

This is the standard markup language for Web pages. It will allow you to create your own website!

This is the language used to style an HTML document. It describes how HTML elements must be displayed

SVG stands for Scalable Vector Graphics. SVG is used to define vector-based graphics for the Web